NEW FLIGHT CIRCUIT CONNECTS &BEYOND LODGES TO SOUTHERN AFRICA'S TOP TOURIST DESTINATIONS

November 2016

Guests travelling to &Beyond's exclusive safari lodges in South Africa can now make use of a newly launched network of flights to quickly and seamlessly connect to the region's top tourist destinations. Regional carrier Airlink has launched daily flights that connect &Beyond Phinda Private Game Reserve and &Beyond Ngala Private Game Reserve to each other, as well as to other tourist hubs throughout Southern Africa.

The new flight circuit, which operates seven days a week, creates a number of easy travel possibilities by linking the two &Beyond reserves to each other, as well as to other top safari reserves in South Africa, including the northern and western parts of the Sabi Sand Game Reserve, as well as Londolozi and Skukuza. It also allows guests to seamlessly enjoy a more varied travel experience by connecting both reserves with beach destinations such as Cape Town and Vilanculos in neighbouring Mozambique. Both &Beyond reserves can also now be easily linked with Livingstone in Zambia.

Not only have connections been made quicker and more convenient but &Beyond has added the new flights to its Fly Me To Phinda safari, which offers complementary flights from Johannesburg when spending three nights or more at &Beyond Phinda Mountain Lodge or &Beyond Phinda Forest Lodge. The new links to Johannesburg and Skukuza will be included in the offer, while the remainder of the connections will be available as a supplement.

Airlink operates a brand new Cessna Grand Caravan 208BEX on all lodge hops, with the aircraft equipped with advanced avionics features that increase reliability during the low-cloud conditions that the South African lowveld and coastal areas are renowned for. Multiple flight legs can also be booked with the same carrier on a single ticket, resulting in assured connections and increasing peace of mind in the event of any schedule disruptions. Flights can also be booked by global travel agencies, allowing agents to combine travellers' international flights and lodge connections on the same ticket.

The new flight circuit will be in operation from 01 January 2017, with flights already available for sale. For more information, please visit www.andBeyond.com, log onto www.flyairlink.com or contact your preferred travel operator.
