ANDBEYOND MNEMBA ISLAND, ZANZIBAR

A 90-minute drive through the lush spice plantations of Zanzibar and a 20-minute crossing atop the balmy ocean is all it takes to reach a paradise you'll never want to leave. At the andBeyond Mnemba Island Lodge, you'll be one of just 20 guests staying in the rustic luxury of the award-winning resort. Private and idyllic, it doesn't get much better than retreating to your beachside banda with access to your own personal butler. Days spent enjoying long walks on the golden sand while trying to catch a glimpse of a turtle hatchling or tiny suni antelope can be interspersed with windsurfing or scuba diving in the remarkable coral atoll surrounding the island. Come nightfall, romantic candlelit dinners on the beach with the waves lapping soothingly at your ankles are combined with local Zanzibari cuisine so deliciously fresh that the hustle and bustle of city life will seem light years away.

DENIS PRIVATE ISLAND, SEYCHELLES

The beautiful archipelago of the Seychelles is made up of 115 islands, but one in particular has us fantasising about a sun-drenched escape. The secluded sanctuary of Denis Island is a 30-minute flight from the main island of Mahé, and so sumptuous that you'll be spoilt from the moment your toes touch the sand. By providing neither television nor Wi-Fi, the eco-friendly resort delivers a wonderful change of pace and real appreciation for the natural surroundings they work hard to protect. When not indulging in a blissful spa treatment, guests can bird-watch, take part in water sports, cycle across the island or explore coral lagoons often frequented by sea turtles. The breathtaking infinite seascapes of Denis Island commonly spark feelings of awe-inspired emotion, particularly when watching the sun set over the sparkling azure of the sea, changing from glowing orange to glinting gold.
