Day 2: 01 June 2020 (Monday) - Arrive Paro/ Thimphu

This morning after breakfast, you will be transferred to Indira Gandhi International Airport, Delhi for your flight to Paro (FLIGHT DETAILS TO BE ADVISED). The flight takes you close to the great Himalayan Mountains, offering dazzling views of some of world’s highest glacial peaks, such as Mount Everest. As you descend into the Paro Valley you will pass forested hills, with the Pa Chu (Paro River) meandering through the valley below and the Paro Dzong (fortress) and Ta Dzong (watch tower) situated on a hill above the town.

As you exit the Paro Airport terminal you will be welcomed by a representative from &Beyond, who will drive you to your hotel in Thimphu. Along the way you will have the opportunity to stop and view the Tamchogg Lakhang Temple, crossing the river on an ancient iron bridge that was reconstructed from original chain links used by the famous Tibetan bridge builder, Thangtong Gyelpo.

On arrival in Thimphu you will be driven directly to your hotel in Thimphu for check in and lunch.

In the afternoon, visit the Textile Museum. Weaving is an integral component of the culture and tradition of Bhutan. With the aim of preserving and promoting this living art, the Royal Textile Academy of Bhutan was instituted in May 2005 under the patronage of Her Majesty
Ashi Sangay Choden Wangchuck as a non-government, non-profit organization. The Academy will also establish a National Centre for weaving and educating young students in textiles, fabric designs and museum studies. It will also serve as a centre for tourists, introducing the nation’s masterpiece to its visitors, while expanding the nation’s resource for cultural tourism.

Next, visit the Folk Heritage Museum - a three storied, 19th century traditional house which provides a glimpse into the lifestyle of the Bhutanese.

End the day with a visit to the Buddha Dordenma - a gigantic Shakyamuni Buddha statue. The statue is filled with over one hundred thousand smaller Buddha statues, each of which, like the Buddha Dordenma itself, but made of bronze and gilded in gold. At a height of 51.5m (169ft), it is one of the tallest Buddha statues on the world.

This evening you will be dressed in Bhutan’s traditional clothing, the Goh (men) and the Kira (women) and taken to watch a cultural program at the hotel’s courtyard. A welcome brief by Mala will enlighten you on what wellness means and how we can incorporate wellness into our everyday life. Your objectives and goals will be explored during the course of the journey and Mala will also explain the tools of meditation that she will be incorporating in the programme, from both Buddhist and Vedantic teachings. (30 mins) This will be followed by dinner at the hotels specialty Bhutanese restaurant, Chig Ja Gye for an authentic Bhutanese meal.

Spend two nights at the Taj Tashi, Thimphu. Your accommodation is in a Deluxe Room on a Half board (Breakfast + Dinner) basis.
Day 3: 02 June 2020 (Tuesday) - Thimphu

The morning begins with a short and gentle yoga stretch to refresh your jet lagged and travelling body, and an introduction to Zen Walking.

The yoga this morning will be gentle and suitable for all. Some stretching and breathing will prepare the body to tune in to the exciting wellness journey you are about to embark on.

Zen walking, also known as Chi walking, is a very slow meditative form of walking that focuses your awareness on the ‘present moment’, allowing your mind to quieten down. During our Wellness Journey we will be Zen walking wherever we get the opportunity! (60mins)

Drive to take a short hike to Cheri Goenpa, situated north of Thimphu. It takes about 30 minutes’ drive, and is an hour long walk through shaded rhododendron forests to reach the monastery. The site of the monastery was founded in 12th century and later Lama Drukpa Kuenley (Divine Madman) established the present building in 15th century. The great saint Shabdrung Ngawang Namgyel, meditated in a cave in 16161 near the monastery, and helped ensure the defeat of an invading Tibetan army. Today Cheri is used by the understudy monks to complete their meditation before they are ordained as monks.

On arrival at the monastery, you will have an outdoor silent meditation session in the compound of the monastery. Here we will do a Buddhist practice called ‘Presence’. (15 mins)

Return back down to the base and drive a little to a beautiful picnic spot by the river where you will have a lovely lunch waiting for you.

After lunch, drive back to town and peruse a row of handicraft shops lining the street outside the hotel which sell beautiful locally made artefacts.

Afternoon at leisure for relaxation.

In the evening, you will have a meditation session on becoming aware of and stilling the body (Kaya Sthairam). Through this meditation, based on mindfulness, we will connect with our breath, bodily sensations and our current emotional state. (45 mins)
Day 4: 03 June 2020 (Wednesday) - Thimphu/ Punakha

Early this morning, after checking out, you will drive to Dochu La Pass. The road climbs steeply through a scenic forest of pine and cedar trees, to Dochu La Pass. The pass offers panoramic views of the Himalayan Mountain ranges.

On arrival at the pass, you will have an energy releasing (Shakti Bandha) yoga class overlooking the mountains and valleys, and breathe in the crisp mountain air. This will be followed by a short session of Pranayam, an exercise in breath awareness. (45mins)

Enjoy breakfast and then visit the 108 stupas built on this 3 150-metre-high (10 000ft) pass in honour of the fallen Bhutanese soldiers.

You will be chauffeured towards Punakha (approx. 2 hour’s drive). On arrival drive to your hotel for check-in and lunch.

In the afternoon drive back to the beginning of the valley and hike about 30 minutes to Chimi Lhakhang, which is on a small hilltop. The temple was dedicated to the great Yogi in the 14th century, known as Drukpa Kuenley, also known as the ‘Divine madman’. He is known for dramatising Buddhist teachings using songs. It is believed that this temple blesses women who seek fertility. If interested you can also watch the Thangkha painters in action here.

In the evening we will have a session of Laughter Yoga. Laughter is a very therapeutic form of reducing stress and anger. Coined by a medical doctor in India, it is now considered a full grown yoga therapy. (60 mins)

Spend two nights at Six Senses, Punakha. Your accommodation is in a Lodge suite on a Full board (Breakfast + Lunch + Dinner) basis.
Early this morning at about 06h00 hours, you will begin your hike to the Khamsum Yuelley Namgyal Chorten. Start your hike from the hotel and walk all the way to the chorten through beautiful farmlands and virgin forests also known as the butterfly trail. This three storey lakhang was built by Her Majesty the Queen Ashi Tshering Yangdon for the protection of the country. It has an impressive view of Punakha Valley. The deities represented here belong to a teaching cycle of Dudjom Rinpoche, a great Nyingmapa master (1904-87). The functions of the deities are to subjugate enemies and harmful influences, and also to spread peace and harmony.

Upon arrival, you will have a yoga session refining your Surya Namaskar (Sun Salutation) on the temple courtyard overlooking the beautiful valley below. (45 mins)

After your invigorating yoga session, enjoy a picnic breakfast, which will be followed by a visit to the temple.

Hike back down about 45 minutes to the suspension bridge from where you will be driven back to the lodge. You should be back by about 11h00 hours to enjoy the rest of the morning at leisure. We recommend that you indulge in the Six Senses Spa this morning (on direct payment basis).

In the late afternoon, proceed back towards Punakha and visit the beautiful Punakha Dzong. Constructed in 1637, this was the second of Bhutan’s Dzong and for many years its seat of government. From this spectacular setting you can look back to see the Khamsum Yuelley Namgyel Temple perched on the hillside far in the distance.

Return back to the lodge and for dinner be guided into mindful eating with a Vegan menu created by Mala and the chef. Mindful eating is a conscious form of eating practiced and promoted by mindfulness teacher and Vietnamese monk, Thich Nhat Hanh. It has a threefold benefit in that it makes us conscious of the impact of eating on the environment, our health and animals.
Day 6: 05 June 2020 (Friday) - Punakha/ Phobjikha

Enjoy morning yoga flow stretches followed by a short session of Pranayam and Zen walking. (60 mins)

After breakfast, you will be chauffeured to Phobjikha (3 hours’ drive). The road takes you through the fertile valley of Wangdue.

Crossing Wangdue the road gradually climbs to Lawa La pass, which offers the magnificent views of Jhomolhari (7300m) mountain and Jichu Drake (6700m). There is an abrupt change in vegetation as we drive, with mountain forest replaced by high altitude dwarf bamboo. Enroute stop at Nobding Village and later at the pass for fabulous views.

Phobjikha is a beautiful valley and is the winter home of endangered black-necked cranes that migrate from the arid plains in the north to pass their winter in milder climate. These winged visitors begin arriving around the last week of September, and return around the end of February/ early March. Phobjikha is at an altitude of 2900 m above sea level and on the periphery of the Black Mountain National Park.

On reaching Gangtey check in to the hotel, soak in the beautiful views of the Gangtey Valley and relax over lunch.

After lunch, you will be escorted to the Gangtey Goemba (monastery), which enjoys the valley's prime real estate, on a forested hill overlooking the green expanse of the entire Phobjikha Valley. Pema Thinley, the grandson and reincarnation of Pema Lingpa, founded the Nyingma temple here in 1613, and today the Goemba is the seat of the 9th reincarnation of the body of the Terton (Treasure discoverer) Pema Lingpa.

From the Goemba you will walk along the Gangtey Nature Trail, quite popular amongst the visitors to the valley. Cross streams and rhododendron gardens into the Sumchubara Village. Afterwards, as you enter the pine covered forest, Mala will guide you into a Japanese form of mindful walking called Forest Bathing or ‘Shinrin Yoku’. The forest opens at a canopy that affords spectacular views of the valley.

At the end of the trail is the Khewa Lhakhang, an old monastery in the valley built in the 13th century. Keeping in the mood of inner silence and inner awareness, you may now immerse yourself into a sound bath with Tibetan singing bowls. (30 mins)

Spend two nights at Gangtey lodge, Phobjikha. Your accommodation will be in a Suite on Full board (Breakfast + Lunch + Dinner) basis.

Day 7: 06 June 2020 (Saturday) - Phobjikha

Today’s morning yoga will be optional in case you want to sleep in after the long journeys. However, the teacher will be available for the enthusiasts.

After breakfast, you will have the morning at leisure. If you would like, you can join the session on how to make tsa-tsa. This is a popular way to commemorate and remember those who have passed away, by enshrining a share of the person’s ashes in a small reliquary. These are also made to bring good karma to the family. After making the tsa-tsa you can place them either under a bridge or a cave where water will not destroy them.

This afternoon we suggest a hot stone bath in the valley (on direct payment basis). Please let the guide know a day prior so that he can organise the same for you or you can also book with the hotel directly.

In the evening head towards the Shedra, which is a monastic school. Attend the meditation session with the monks which will be followed by a prayer service. It is an enchanting experience where about 300 monks chant their prayers each night.
Day 8: 07 June 2020 (Saturday) - Phobjikha/ Paro

The yoga session this morning will continue with the deepening of the Surya Namskar practice and Zen walking. (60 mins)

After breakfast, you will be driven to Paro (5 hour’s drive), where you will go to your hotel for check-in and lunch.

Afterwards, visit a traditional village house. The beauty of Paro Valley is embellished by cluster of old fashioned farm houses. Bhutanese farm houses are very colourful, decorative and traditionally built without the use of single nail. All houses follow the same architectural pattern. A visit to a farm house is very interesting and offers fascinating insight into the lifestyle of a farmer.

On the way back, stop at Kyichu Lhakhang which is the oldest temple in Bhutan. This temple gives you the opportunity to pray for the benefit of loved ones by offering a 1000 butter lamps which can be collectively donated for.

This evening Mala will introduce you to a Buddhist meditation called Metta of Loving Kindness. (45 mins)

Spend two nights at the Amankora, Paro. Your accommodation is in a Suite on a Full board (Breakfast + Lunch + Dinner) basis.

Day 9: 08 June 2020 (Sunday) - Paro

Very early this morning, take a short drive to the north of Paro Valley to Ramthanka, and start your hike to the spectacular Taktsang monastery (Tiger’s Nest) with a packed breakfast. The trail climbs through beautiful pine forest, many of the trees festooned with Spanish moss and an occasional grove of fluttering prayer flags. Legend has it that Guru Rinpoche, founder of Buddhism in Bhutan flew from Eastern Bhutan on a tigress, bringing Buddhist teachings with him and meditated here on this cliff. This is one of the most venerated and sacred of all Buddhist sights around the world.
As you arrive at the top, stop at the second viewpoint for a short mindfulness meditation. (15 mins)

Afterwards, walk down to Taktsang cafeteria for a short break and tea. Walk downhill to the road where transport will collect you and take you to your hotel for rest, and lunch enroute at a local restaurant in Paro.

The rest of the day is at your leisure. This is a good time to do extra activities, such as enjoying spa facilities, a massage or relaxing in the stream room.

The closing session today will be on sharing, reviewing your wellness goals and question/answers. Om Shanti, may you go in peace.
